

SIDE #4 - 5 PERFORMERS

LIGHTS FLICKER. SOUND EFFECT: SPACESHIP WHIRRING.)

MOM: What was that?

5

DAD: (Glances out over the AUDIENCE as if it was out a window.) Oh, it looks like we have a few clouds in the sky. We may need to brace ourselves for a light drizzle.

RONNY: Lucy, can you please take me Bigfoot hunting tomorrow?

LUCY: Why do you keep on asking me when you know the answer?

10

RONNY: Because I'm hoping you'll change your mind. Wouldn't it be so cool to see—

GRANDPA: (Wakes up.) Flying saucers!

RONNY: That would be awesome, too.

15

MOM: Now, dear, you know there is no such thing as Bigfoot and flying saucers and aliens from other planets.

GRANDPA: Yes, there are aliens from other planets. I know that for a fact.

20

LUCY: (Gets up and crosses DOWNSTAGE again to address the AUDIENCE.) My grandpa is convinced that there are aliens from other planets. In fact, he claims to have visited one of them.

GRANDPA: (To RONNY.) Your grandmother and I got married on the planet Zordon.

RONNY: Cool!

25

DAD: I'm sure you did. (Jokes.) Where did you go on your honeymoon? Mars?

GRANDPA: Are you crazy? Trying to get a flight to Mars is impossible that time of year. It's a major tourist spot. (Drops his head and falls back asleep. OTHERS looks at him for a moment, shake their heads, then go back to the pizza.)

30

LUCY: (To AUDIENCE.) So, as you can see, my grandpa is a little crazy. But we love him.

RONNY: Lucy, can you please—

35

LUCY: (To RONNY.) No. (To AUDIENCE.) Maybe one day he'll stop asking. But he's a little crazy about it. I wonder where he gets that from.

GRANDPA: (Laughs in his sleep.) That's the funniest joke I've ever heard! They don't tell jokes like that on Earth. (LUCY looks at AUDIENCE, shrugs, then goes back over and joins her family around the table. GRANDPA continues to laugh in his sleep as the LIGHTS FADE to BLACK.)
